

The Master of Music degree in Collaborative Piano is intended for musicians who desire to pursue graduate study in the field of accompanying in order to continue the development of their creative skills. The goals of the Master of Music degree are to provide advanced training in a specific emphasis area, confer degrees to students who can communicate musical knowledge in oral and written form, and prepare students for employment in the field of music.

NOTE: Students in the M.M. in Collaborative Piano must take a diagnostic exam in diction in Italian, German, and French during the first week of the semester. Collaborative pianists must contact the Voice Area Coordinator to schedule this exam. If remedial work is needed in any of these languages, the student will be required to take undergraduate diction courses.
